- Processional Hymn—266 ..... Cologne
Psalm—1 ..... Gregorian
    Blessed is the man that hath not walked in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stood in the way of sinners; and hath not sat in the seat of the scornful.
    But his delight is in the law of the Lord: and in his law will he exercise himself day and night.
    And he shall be like a tree planted by the water-side: that will bring forth his fruit in due season.
    His leaf also shall not wither: and look, whatsoever he doeth, it shall prosper.
    As for the ungodly, it is not so with them: but they are like the chaff, which the wind scattereth away from the face of the earth.
    Therefore the ungodly shall not be able to stand in the judgment: neither the sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
    But the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: and the way of the ungodly shall perish.

To the Congregation

I would like to assure members of St. James's congregation that they are most cordially welcome to this Church and need not fear that they are trespassing on any one's sitting or pew. The Vergers of both Churches will be glad to show them to seats where they will be comfortable. Those who prefer to sit forward and those who prefer to sit towards the back can all be accommodated, so please do not hesitate to state your preference to either of the Sextons.

It is possible that in the first few weeks of our association members of the congregation of St. Luke and The Epiphany may find their accustomed seats occupied. I am sure they will understand the reason and will assist Mr. Strang in making our fellow-worshippers feel entirely welcome. In these first few weeks we have the privilege of acting as hosts in God's house.

Sincerely,

THOMAS L. HARRIS.

Immortal, invisible, God only wise,
In light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days,
Almighty, victorious, Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unhasting, and silent as light,
Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might;
Thy Justice like mountains high soaring above
Thy clouds which are fountains of goodness and love.

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small;
In all life Thou livest, the true Life of all;
We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree,
And wither and perish, but nought changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light,
Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight;
All laud we would render: O help us to see
'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee.

The Lord is my Shepherd: therefore can I lack nothing.

He shall feed me in a green pasture: and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort.

He shall convert my soul: and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff comfort me.

Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them that trouble me: Thou hast anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full.

But Thy loving-kindness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

Anthem—"Come, O Thou Traveler Unknown" ..... H. Alexander Matthews

Come, O Thou Traveler unknown,

Whom still I hold, but cannot see,

My company before is gone,

And I am left alone with Thee;

With Thee all night I mean to stay,

And wrestle till the break of day.

Yield to me now, for I am weak,

But confident in self-despair;

Speak to my heart, in blessing speak,

Be conquered by my instant prayer!

Speak, or Thou never hence shall move,

And tell me if Thy name is Love.

I need not tell Thee who I am,

My misery or sin declare,

Thyself hast called me by my name;

Look on Thy hands and read it there!

But Who, I ask Thee, Who art Thou?

Tell me Thy name, and tell me now.

'Tis Love! 'Tis Love! Thou diedst for me!

I hear Thy whisper in my heart.

The morning breaks, the shadows flee,

Pure, universal Love Thou art:

To me, to all, Thy mercies move;

Thy nature and Thy name is Love.

Postludium Hymn—364 (verses 1, 2, 6) ..... Barnby

H. ALEXANDER MATTHEWS, organist and choirmaster
FLORENCE L. MANNING, soloist

Last Sunday saw the first real gathering of our associated congregations, and, especially at the eleven o'clock service, there was powerful evidence that the people of both churches intend to make the association worth while. They came in large numbers. The spirit and "go" of the service were fruits of the common good will to serve God and to worship Him. It was a heartening beginning of our venture in Christian co-operation.

But it was very much more than that in its promise. The coming together of the two congregations is a step towards that high and difficult achievement called unity, and true unity, "the fellowship of Christian minds," is indeed "like to that above," as the old hymn says. If we keep this in mind, our presence in Church becomes a witness to our determination to learn how to become one with each other, for each of us is becoming more nearly one with Him whose name we bear.

It is because we so deeply believe this, because in a world torn with strife Our Lord Jesus is the only true unifier, that we who are your leaders in His cause are so thankful for Sunday's encouragement, and urge upon all of you to keep on as you have so well begun.

If in the heart of the city we can build a powerful center for Christ and His cause He will use us. "According to our faith" it will be done unto us.

News Notes

The arrangements about collections at the Sunday services are as follows:

1. Envelopes for each Church go direct to the Accounting Warden of the Church whose name is printed on them, as of course do all gifts specially marked.
2. Loose collections are not divided, but are put into a common account that has been set up. They will help to meet certain common expenses (music, printing, fuel, etc.).

The Girls' Club of St. Luke and The Epiphany extend a cordial invitation to young women of St. James's Church to meet with them regularly on Monday evenings for supper at six-thirty. Last year the Club had a gymnasium class and a series of lectures on special topics of interest to various groups. A similar program is being planned for this year.

There is a celebration of the Holy Communion every Sunday morning at St. James's Church at 8 A. M.

Still wilt not hear thine inner God proclaim:
"Turn back, O Man, forswear thy foolish ways!"

Earth might be fair, and all men glad and wise,
Age after age their tragic empires rise,

Earth might be fair and all men glad and wise.

Psalms 84 .....	Gregorian

O how amiable are Thy dwellings: Thou Lord of hosts!
My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord:
my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.

Yea, the sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest, where she may lay her young: even Thy altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God.

Blessed are they that dwell in Thy house: they will be always praising Thee.
Blessed is the man whose strength is in Thee: in whose heart are Thy ways.
Who going through the vale of misery use it for a well: and the pools are filled with water.

They will go from strength to strength; and unto the God of gods appear-eth every one of them in Sion.

O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer: hearken, O God of Jacob.
Behold, O God our defender: and look upon the face of Thine anointed.
For one day in Thy courts: is better than a thousand.
I had rather be a door-keeper in the house of my God: than to dwell in the tents of ungodliness.
For the Lord God is a light and defence: the Lord will give grace and worship, and no good thing shall He withhold from them that live a godly life.
O Lord God of hosts: blessed is the man that putteth his trust in Thee.

Thanksgiving for the Saints

at four o'clock

Hymn 541

The congregation is asked to read such portions of the following service as are printed in Italics.

In the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit, Amen.

O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, who art not the God of the dead, but of the living, for all live unto thee,

We worship thee and give thee thanks for ever.

O Jesus Christ, the conqueror of death, author and perfecter of our faith, who didst endure the Cross, despising the shame, and hast taken thy seat at the right hand of God,

We worship thee and give thee thanks for ever.

O Holy Spirit of loyalty and courage, through whom the saints were strong to endure unto the end,

We worship thee and give thee thanks for ever.

We believe in the Communion of Saints; We believe in the Forgiveness of sins, and the Resurrection unto eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Let us pray:

O Almighty God, who hast knit together thine elect in one communion and fellowship, in the mystical body of thy Son Christ our Lord; Grant us grace so to follow thy blessed Saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those unspeakable joys which thou hast prepared for those who unfeignedly love thee; through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us give thanks unto God for all his Saints.

Blessed are the poor in spirit:

For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

For all who in simplicity and poverty, being of no account as men count greatness, have loved and served their fellows for thy sake, and by their beggary have made others rich,

We praise and bless thy glorious Name, O Lord.

Blessed are they that mourn:

For they shall be comforted.

For all who being called to taste of suffering have glorified thee by their faith and courage,

We praise and bless thy glorious Name, O Lord.

Blessed are the meek:

For they shall inherit the earth.

For all who, unrewarded and unknown, have been obedient unto the heavenly vision, and thinking nothing of themselves, have lived for thee and for their fellow-men,

We praise and bless thy glorious Name, O Lord.

Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness:

For they shall be filled.

For all those who have longed for thy Salvation and lived in ordinary daily life as seeking first thy kingdom, and thy righteousness,

We praise and bless thy glorious Name, O Lord.

Blessed are the merciful:

For they shall obtain mercy.

For all people who have been lovers of their brethren and sought to help them, and show them kindness, being merciful to others, as thou, O Father in Heaven, art merciful,

We praise and bless thy glorious Name, O Lord.

Blessed are the pure of heart:

For they shall see God.

For all to whom thou hast vouchsafed a vision of thy purity and truth, so that they brought thee into the lives of others,

We praise and bless thy glorious Name, O Lord.

Blessed are the peacemakers:

For they shall be called the children of God.

For all who through our Lord have sought to exercise the ministry of reconciliation, and lived in loyalty to the Prince of Peace,

We praise and bless thy glorious Name, O Lord.

Blessed are they who are persecuted for righteousness' sake:

For great is their reward in heaven.

For all who have suffered for the kingdom's sake and, as disciples of the Son of Man, have not loved their lives unto the death,

We praise and bless thy glorious Name, O Lord.

Blessed are ye when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake!

Rejoice and be exceeding glad.

O ye holy and humble men of heart, bless ye the Lord:

Praise Him and magnify Him for ever.

O ye spirits and souls of the righteous, bless ye the Lord:

Praise Him and magnify Him for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Introit and Kyrie from The Requiem.....Gabriel Fauré

Requiem aeternam, dona eis, Domine:
et lux perpetua luceat eis. Te decet hymnus, Deus, in Sion: et tibi reddetur votum in Jerusalem: exaudi orationem meam, ad te omnis caro veniet. Kyrie eleison, Christe, eleison.

Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord,
and may light perpetual shine upon them.

A hymn, O God, becometh Thee in Sion, and unto Thee shall be paid a vow in Jerusalem.

Hear my prayer; unto Thee shall all flesh come.

Lord, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

The Epistle for All Saints' Day.....Revelation vii, 2

Anthem: "O what their joy and their glory must be". William H. Harris

O what their joy and their glory must be,
Those endless Sabbaths the blessed ones see!
Crown for the valiant; to weary ones rest;
God shall be all, and in all ever blest.

What are the Monarch, his court, and his throne?
What are the peace and the joy that they own?
Tell us, ye blest ones, that in it have share,
If what ye feel ye can fully declare.

Truly "Jerusalem" name we that shore,
"Vision of peace," that brings joy evermore!
Wish and fulfillment can severed be ne'er,
Nor the thing prayed for come short of the prayer.

We, where no trouble distraction can bring,
Safely the anthems of Zion shall sing;
While for Thy grace, Lord, their voices of praise
Thy blessed people shall evermore raise.

There dawns no Sabbath, no Sabbath is o'er,
Those Sabbath-keepers have one, and no more;
One and unending is that triumph-song
Which to the angels and us shall belong.

Now in the meanwhile, with hearts raised on high,
We for that country must yearn and must sigh,
Seeking Jerusalem, dear native land,
Through our long exile on Babylon's strand.

Low before Him with our praises we fall,
Of whom, and in whom, and through whom are all;
Of whom the Father, and through whom, the Son,
In whom the Spirit, with these ever One. Amen.

Service on the Eve of Armistice Day

at four o'clock

The congregation is asked to read such portions of the following service as are printed in Italics

O God of peace, who broughtest again from the dead Our Lord Jesus Christ,
Have mercy upon us.

O Prince of peace, who didst shed thy blood for our redemption,
Have mercy upon us.

O Holy Spirit of peace, who helpst our infirmities,
Grant us thy peace.

Remember not, Lord, our hardness of heart that keeps righteousness and peace from meeting together; our blindness that hides the horrors of war under the mantle of false patriotism. Spare us, good Lord, spare thy people, who confess their sins unto Thee.

Spare us, Good Lord.

From pride and greed that are the roots of war; from the lust of possession; from envy; from contempt of our brethren of other races,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From unbelief in thy power to have victory and to triumph over the spirit that breeds war amongst peoples and nations,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From the lethargy and selfish ease that shift responsibility for war from ourselves and our sins,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From forgetfulness that the maimed bodies, the blasted lives, of soldiers and sailors, are endured and suffered for us,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From the temptation to take unworthy ways to peace; from failure to measure the moral and spiritual struggle for peace as our own,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From the folly of attempting to make peace amongst men that is not built upon the foundation of peace between ourselves and Thee,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From unwillingness to make sacrifices of our comfort, our private opinions, our narrow prejudices, for the sake of peace,

Good Lord, deliver us.

God standeth in the congregation of princes;
He is a judge among gods.

How long will ye give wrong judgment,
And accept the persons of the ungodly?

Defend the poor and fatherless;
See that such as are in need and necessity have right.

Deliver the outcast and poor;
Save them from the hand of the ungodly.

They know not, neither do they understand, but walk on still in darkness:
All the foundations of earth are out of course.

I have said, Ye are gods,
And ye are all the children of the Most Highest.

But ye shall die like men,
And fall like one of the princes.

Arise, O God, and judge thou the earth;
For thou shalt take all nations to thine inheritance.

Grant, we beseech thee, merciful Lord, to thy faithful people pardon and peace, that they may be cleansed from all their sins, and serve thee with a quiet mind; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sermon.....REV. THOMAS L. HARRIS

Anthem: "Greater Love Hath No Man".....Ireland

Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can the floods drown it. Love is strong as death. Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Who His own Self bare our sins in His own Body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness.

Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified in the Name of the Lord Jesus.

Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, that ye should shew forth the praises of Him who hath called you out of darkness into His marvellous light.

I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

Offertory Hymn 501

Grant us, O Lord, such a measure of thy pure and peaceable spirit as that we may be indeed peacemakers worthy to be called sons of God.

O Lord, hear our prayer,
And let our cry come unto thee.

Grant us, O Lord, a true love of peace, a willingness to labor for it, and if need be to suffer for it.

O Lord, hear our prayer,
And let our cry come unto thee.

Grant us, O Lord, meekness to approach all conflicting issues with understanding; make us willing to share the joys and sorrows of our fellow men. Grant us sympathy, tolerance and gentleness.

O Lord, hear our prayer,
And let our cry come unto thee.

Grant us, O Lord, such a desire for Thy Kingdom and Thy righteousness, that we may make no peace with oppression; remove far from us all unworthy loyalties, all selfish interests, all contempt and hatred of our fellow men.

O Lord, hear our prayer,
And let our cry come unto thee.

Let us give thanks to God—for his holiness; for his righteous purpose manifested in history; for his love revealed in Jesus Christ our Lord,

Thanks be to thee, O Lord.

For the gift of his Holy Spirit working in the saints and prophets of our own time as well as in the past,

Thanks be to God.

For all those his servants who have been faithful unto death; for all those who have devoted their lives to the welfare of their fellow men,

Thanks be to God.

For all causes, and all movements inspired by the love of righteousness and peace: for the joy of living in a day of crisis and decision: for all patience, and courage, and kindness, and wisdom wherever found,

Thanks be to God.

Finally, brethren, let us in humility and in all sincerity dedicate ourselves anew to God's will in the words that Jesus Christ himself hath taught us:

Our Father, etc.

Psalm 121 ..... Gregorian

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills: from whence cometh my help.
My help cometh even from the Lord: who hath made heaven and earth.
He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: and He that keepeth thee will not sleep.
Behold, He that keepeth Israel: shall neither slumber nor sleep.
The Lord Himself is thy keeper: the Lord is thy defence upon thy right hand;
So that the sun shall not burn thee by day: neither the moon by night.
The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: yea, it is even He that shall keep thy soul.
The Lord shall preserve thy going out, and thy coming in: from this time forth for evermore.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without
end. Amen.

First Lesson

Magnificat in B flat.....Stanford

My soul doth magnify the Lord; and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
For He hath regarded the lowliness of His handmaiden.
For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
For He that is mighty hath magnified me; and holy is His name.
And His mercy is on them that fear Him throughout all generations.
He hath showed strength with His arm; He hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat; and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich He hath sent empty away.
He remembering His mercy hath holpen His servant Israel; as He promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed, forever.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without
end. Amen.

Second Lesson

Nunc Dimittis in B flat.....Stanford

Lord, now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace: according to Thy word.
For mine eyes have seen: Thy salvation.
Which Thou hast prepared: before the face of all people;
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles: and to be the glory of Thy people
Israel.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without
end. Amen.

Anthem: "God Be In My Head".....H. Walford Davies

And in my understanding;
God be in mine eyes,

And in my speaking;
God be in my heart;
And in my thinking;
God be at mine end,
And at my departing.

Anthem: "A Song in the Night".....Huntington Woodman

While all things were in quiet silence, and the night was in the midst of her course, the Almighty Word of the Lord came down.
All ye inhabitants of the world and dwellers on the earth—see ye! and when He bloweth a trumpet—hear ye!
Ye shall have a song, a song in the night, when a holy solemnity is kept;
with gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come unto the mountain of the Lord.
Ye shall have a song, a song in the night.

There is a song so thrilling, so far all songs excelling,
That he who sings it, sings it oft again.
No mortal did invent it, but God by angels sent it,
So deep and earnest, yet so sweet and plain.
The love that it revealeth, all earthly sorrows healeth;
They flee like mist before the break of day.
When, O my soul, thou learnest this song of songs in earnest,
Thy cares and sorrows all shall pass away.

Sermon.....THE REV. THOMAS L. HARRIS

Instead of the customary conclusion, the sermon will end with the singing of the following hymn by Miss Manning. The congregation will remain seated.

To Mercy, Pity, Peace, and Love
All pray in their distress,
And to these virtues of delight
Return their thankfulness.

For Mercy has a human heart,
Pity, a human face,
And Love, the human form divine,
And Peace, the human dress.

For Mercy, Pity, Peace, and Love
Is God our Father dear;
And Mercy, Pity, Peace, and Love
Is Man, his child and care.

Then every man, of every clime,
That prays in his distress,
Prays to the human form divine,
Love, Mercy, Pity, Peace.

And all must love the human form,
In heathen, Turk, or Jew;
Where Mercy, Love, and Pity dwell,
There God is dwelling too.

Offertory Chorale: "Beside Thy Cradle".....Bach

Beside Thy cradle here I stand,
O Thou that ever livest,
And bring Thee, with a willing hand,
The very gifts Thou givest,
Accept me; 'tis my mind and heart,
My soul, my strength, my ev'ry part,
That Thou from me requirest.

1 By weary stages
The old world ages;
By blood, by rages,
By pain-sown seeds,
By fools and sages,
With death for wages,
Souls leave their cages
And man does deeds.

2 In mire he trudges,
In grime he drudges,
In blindness judges,
In darkness gropes,
His bitter measure
Yields little pleasure;
For only treasure
He has his hopes.

3 The hope that sailing,
When winds are failing,
Above the railing
A coast may rise;

The thought that glory

But Heaven o'er ye

With love and singing,
And great joy ringing,
And hearts new made,
The prince, forspoken
By seer and token,
By whom Sin's broken
And death is stayed.

5 Now by His power,
The world will flower,
And hour by hour
His realm increase;
Now men benighted,
Will feel them righted,
And loved and lighted
To spirit's peace.

Man's flesh, and bearing
Man's cares, through caring
What man may be;
Our God is sharing

To help men's faring
And set men free.

Carol: "The Three Kings".....Cornelius

1 Three kings have journeyed from the eastern land,
A star hath led them to Jordan's strand,
And in Judea inquire the three
Where the new-born infant King may be.
With gold and myrrh and incense sweet,
They bring the Holy Child an offering
meet.

2 And brightly shineth the guiding star;
Unto the manger the kings repair;
With rapture on the Boy they gaze,
And bow before Him in joy and praise.
With gold and myrrh and incense sweet
They bring the Holy Boy an offering
meet.

3 O child of man! hold thee firm and true;
The kings come hither, O come thou, too!
The star of mercy, the star of love,
Shall point thee the pathway to heav'n above;
And fail thee gold and incense sweet,
Lay thou thy heart at the Saviour's feet!
Bring Him thy heart!

The congregation is asked to read such portions of the following service as are printed in Italics

V. In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life; and the life was the light of men. And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not. That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father), full of grace and truth.

O God, more wonderful in thy perfection than all that we can ever desire or know,

R. We praise and bless thy glorious Name, O Lord.

V. O God, who hast sent light into darkness showing forth to man thy very self in the life of Jesus Christ,

R. We praise and bless thy glorious Name, O Lord.

V. O God, who by thy pure and mighty Spirit dost lift up all men into the heavenly places, that we may live the life which is divine,

R. We praise and bless thy glorious Name, O Lord.

V. O God, Creator, Redeemer, Teacher, Source of life and truth and love and power, in whom we live and move and have our being,

R. We praise and bless thy glorious Name, O Lord.

V. Lord, show us the Father, and it sufficeth us:

R. He that hath seen me hath seen the Father.

V. The Word was made flesh and dwelt among us:

R. And we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only-begotten of the Father.

V. O Thou, who hast given us thy only-begotten Son to take our nature upon him and to be born of a pure Virgin: grant that we being regenerate and made thy children by adoption and grace, may daily be renewed by thy Holy Spirit, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For all the perfection which thou art: for all the glory which is thine: for all that thou hast shown us of thyself in the royal love of Christ,

R. We thank thee, O Father.

V. For the manifestation in our flesh of what thou wouldst have man become: and for the bringing in of a better hope,

R. We thank thee, O Father.

V. For the fire cast on earth in the new revelation of thyself, to burn up violence and pride,

R. We thank thee, O Father.

V. For the regeneration of human life and the birth of joy and liberty, through the mission of thy Church,

R. We thank thee, O Father.

V. For all who show forth the Spirit of Christ outside the circle of organized religion,

R. We thank thee, O Father.

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Are now in Bethlehem fulfilled;
Lo! thither come the Sages,
To Jesu's cradle led,
And worship Him as King of all the ages.
Gold, incense, spices are the mystic symbols three
That in the stall at Bethlehem before the Holy Child they offer.
My Saviour, when I think of all I owe to Thee,
I too must haste my humble gift to proffer
Before Thy manger-bed;
For this glad day to me with joy is fraught,
Since Thou, O Lord of life, to all the heathen
The light of grace hast brought.
What can I give to Thee, Thou King of heaven?
O let me lay my heart before Thee,
A poor and worthless thing, yet nought more precious can I bring.

Gold of Ophir is but vain,
Idle dross that man desireth;
Let the earth her wealth retain,
Jesu's love our hearts requireth
Lay your hearts then at His feet
For a New Year's off'ring meet!

Soprano Recitative and Aria

Reject it not,
O Thou my soul's true Light,
This heart that I in homage bring to Thee!
For, worthless though it be,
Some sweets therein are stored
That from Thy Spirit are outpoured;
The gold of faith, the incense born of prayer,
The myrrh of true contrition's meek endeavour,
All these, O Saviour, will I bring,
And offer them before Thy throne forever.
If Thou to me Thyself wilt give,
Ah, then indeed my wealth is overflowing!
For, rich in Thee, henceforth I live
Of all things else possess, on earth the joys of heaven knowing.

Saviour, take me for Thine own!
Contrite heart I lay before Thee!
I am Thine, and Thine alone.
Words and actions all adore Thee!
See them, Saviour, at Thy feet!
Take them, Lord, for service meet!

Chorale

My God, I give myself to Thee,
On Thy great love relying,
Do Thou in life my helper be,
My light when I am dying.
Incline me still to do Thy will,
Be that my one endeavour,
Through all my days to sing Thy praise
And worship Thee forever!

Offertory Anthem: "The King's Highway".....	Edward Shippen Barnes
I know not where the road will lead, I follow day by day; Or where it ends: I only know I walk the King's Highway.	The way is truth, the way is love, For light and strength I pray, And through the years of life to God I walk the King's Highway.
I know not if the way is long, And no one else can say, But rough or smooth, uphill or down, I walk the King's Highway.	The countless hosts lead on before, I must not fear or stray; With them, the pilgrims of all creeds, I walk the King's Highway.
And some I love have reached the end, But some with me may stay; Their faith and hope still guiding me, I walk the King's Highway.	Through light and dark the road leads on Till dawns the endless day When I shall know why in this life I walk the King's Highway.

Cantata: "The Sages of Sheba"

JOHN SEBASTIAN BACH

Choral Prelude: "We All Believe in One God".....John Sebastian Bach
ROBERT ELMORE

Hymn 98 .....

Nicolai

The congregation is asked to read such portions of the following service as are printed in Italics

V. In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life; and the life was the light of men. And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not. That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father), full of grace and truth.

O God, more wonderful in thy perfection than all that we can ever desire or know,

R. We praise and bless thy glorious Name, O Lord.

V. O God, who hast sent light into darkness showing forth to man thy very self in the life of Jesus Christ,

R. We praise and bless thy glorious Name, O Lord.

V. O God, who by thy pure and mighty Spirit dost lift up all men into the heavenly places, that we may live the life which is divine,

R. We praise and bless thy glorious Name, O Lord.

V. O God, Creator, Redeemer, Teacher, Source of life and truth and love and power, in whom we live and move and have our being,

R. We praise and bless thy glorious Name, O Lord.

V. Lord, show us the Father, and it sufficeth us:

R. He that hath seen me hath seen the Father.

V. The Word was made flesh and dwelt among us:

R. And we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only-begotten of the Father.

V. O Thou, who hast given us thy only-begotten Son to take our nature upon him and to be born of a pure Virgin: grant that we being regenerate and made thy children by adoption and grace, may daily be renewed by thy Holy Spirit, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For all the perfection which thou art: for all the glory which is thine: for all that thou hast shown us of thyself in the royal love of Christ,

R. We thank thee, O Father.

V. For the manifestation in our flesh of what thou wouldst have man become: and for the bringing in of a better hope,

R. We thank thee, O Father.

V. For the fire cast on earth in the new revelation of thyself, to burn up violence and pride,

R. We thank thee, O Father.

V. For the regeneration of human life and the birth of joy and liberty, through the mission of thy Church,

R. We thank thee, O Father.

V. For all who show forth the Spirit of Christ outside the circle of organized religion,

R. We thank thee, O Father.

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

O Saviour sweet, O Saviour kind, Who came to earth the lost to find, Who died to save us on the tree, Our hearts are filled with love to Thee, O Saviour sweet, O Saviour kind.

Hymn 259 ..... Dykes

Psalms 23 ..... Gregorian

The Lord is my Shepherd: therefore can I lack nothing.
He shall feed me in a green pasture: and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort.
He shall convert my soul: and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff comfort me.
Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them that trouble me: Thou hast anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full.
But Thy loving-kindness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without
end. Amen.

First Lesson

Magnificat in B flat.....Stanford

My soul doth magnify the Lord; and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour,
For He hath regarded the lowliness of His handmaiden.
For, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
For He that is mighty hath magnified me; and holy is His name.
And His mercy is on them that fear Him throughout all generations.
He hath showed strength with His arm; He hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat; and hath exalted the humble
and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich He hath sent empty away.
He remembering His mercy hath holpen His servant Israel; as He promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed, forever.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without
end. Amen.

Second Lesson

Nunc Dimittis in B flat.....Stanford

Lord, now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace: according to Thy word.
For mine eyes have seen: Thy salvation.
Which Thou hast prepared: before the face of all people;
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles: and to be the glory of Thy people
Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without
end. Amen.

O Gladsome Light of the holy glory of the Father, immortal, heav'nly, holy, blessed Jesus Christ. Now that we are come to the sun's hour of rest, and the lights of evening 'round us shine, we hymn the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, ever Divine. O worthy art Thou at all times to be sung with undefiled tongue, O Son of God. Therefore all the world doth glorify Thee.

Solo: "Let Us Arise and Watch" ..... Edward Shippen Barnes

Let us arise and watch ere dawn of light,
And to the Lord our hearts and voices raise;
And meditate in psalms, and all unite in holy hymns of praise.
So joining in the strains of saints on high,
Hereafter, in the courts of heaven's great King,
May we be meet His praise eternally with them in bliss to sing.

Address ..... THE REV. JOSEPH FORT NEWTON, D.D.

Anthem: "The Wilderness" ..... Edward Shippen Barnes

The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad, and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose.

It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing: the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and of Sharon, they shall see thy glory, the glory of the Lord, and the excellency of our God.

Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees.

Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come with recompense; He will come and save you.

Then shall the eyes of the blind be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped.

Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing:
for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert.

And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water: in the habitation of jackals, where they lay, shall be grass with reeds and rushes.

And a highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called the way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it, but it shall be for the redeemed; the wayfaring men, yea, fools shall not err therein.

No lion shall be there, nor shall any ravenous beast go up thereon; they shall not be found there; but the redeemed of the Lord shall walk there:

And the ransomed of the Lord shall return and come to Zion with songs.

And everlasting joy shall be upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Solitary lieth the city, she that was full of people. How is she widowed, she that was great among nations, princess among the provinces! How is she put under tribute! Sorely she weepeth in darkness, her tears are on her cheeks; and no one offereth consolation; yea, all her friends have betrayed her, they are become her enemies.

Zion's ways do languish; none come to her solemn feasts. All her gates are desolate: her priests sigh, yea, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

Is it nothing to all ye that pass by? Behold and see if there be any sorrow that is like unto My sorrow. Now behold, O Lord, look Thou on my affliction; see the foe hath magnified himself.

Finale, Act I, PARSIFAL ..... Wagner

The Holy Supper duly
Prepare we day by day,
As on that last time truly,
The soul it still may stay.

Who lives to do good deeds
This meal forever feeds;
The Cup his hand may lift
And claim the purest gift.

As, anguished and lowly, His life stream spilling for sinners He did offer,
For the Saviour holy I now, with heart free and willing, my blood will proffer.

His body given our sins to shrive,
Through death becomes in us alive.

His love endures, the dove upsoars,
The Saviour's sacred token;
Take the wine red, for you it was shed;
Let Bread of Life be broken!

"Take My body and eat, take and drink My blood; thus be our love remembered!"

"Take and drink My blood, take My body and eat; do this and think of Me!"

Wine and bread the Grail's Lord changed,
Which at that last meal were ranged,
Through His pity's loving tide,
When He shed for you His gore,
And His body crucified.

Take of this bread, change it again,
Your powers of body firing;
Living and dead, strive might and main
To work out the Lord's desiring.

Blood and body which He offered,
Changed to food, for you are proffered
By the Saviour ye revere,
In the wine which now ye pour,
And the bread ye eat of here.

Take of this wine, change it anew,
To life's impetuous torrent,
Gladly combine, brothers so true,
To fight as your duty shall warrant.
Blessed in Love and Believing!
Blessed Believing!

Credo ..... Gretchaninoff

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, And of all things visible and invisible: and in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, begotten of His Father, before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, Very God of Very God; begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father; by Whom all things were made: Who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven, And was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, And was made man: And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate; He suffered and was buried: And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures: and ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of the Father: and He shall come again with glory, to judge both the quick and the dead; Whose kingdom shall have no end. And I believe in the Holy Ghost, The Lord and Giver of Life, Who proceedeth from the Father and the Son; Who with the Father and Son together is worshipped and glorified; Who spake by the Prophets; And I believe one Catholic and Apostolic Church: I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins: And I look for the Resurrection of the dead: And the Life of the world to come. Amen.

Offertory Anthem: "A Ballad of Trees and the Master"

H. Alexander Matthews

Into the woods the Master went, clean forspent,
Into the woods the Master came, forspent with love and shame,
But the olives they were not blind to Him,
The little gray leaves were kind to Him,
The thorn tree had a mind to Him,
When into the woods He came.

Out of the woods my Master went, and He was well content;
Out of the woods my Master came, content with death and shame.
When death and shame would woo Him last,
From under the trees they drew Him last,
'Twas on a tree they slew Him last,
When out of the woods He came.

Festival Te Deum.....Gustav Holst

We praise thee, O God: we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.
All the earth doth worship thee: the Father everlasting.
To thee all Angels cry aloud: the Heavens, and all the Powers therein;
To thee Cherubim and Seraphim: continually do cry.
Holy, Holy, Holy: Lord God of Sabaoth;
Heaven and earth are full of the majesty: of thy glory.
The glorious company of the Apostles: praise thee.
The goodly fellowship of the Prophets: praise thee.
The noble army of Martyrs: praise thee.
The holy Church throughout all the world: doth acknowledge thee;
The Father: of an infinite Majesty;
Thine adorable, true: and only Son;
Also the Holy Ghost: the Comforter.
Thou art the King of Glory: O Christ.
Thou art the everlasting Son: of the Father.
When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man: thou didst humble thyself to be born of a Virgin.
When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death: thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God: in the glory of the Father.
We believe that thou shalt come: to be our Judge.
We therefore pray thee, help thy servants: whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.
Make them to be numbered with thy Saints: in glory everlasting.
O Lord, save thy people: and bless thine heritage.
Govern them: and lift them up forever.
Day by day: we magnify thee;
And we worship thy Name: ever, world without end.
Vouchsafe, O Lord: to keep us this day without sin.
O Lord, have mercy upon us: have mercy upon us.
O Lord, let thy mercy be upon us: as our trust is in thee.
O Lord, in thee have I trusted: let me never be confounded.

Second Lesson

"By Early Morning Light"..... Traditional

By early morning light,	They saw upon the tomb,
Ere yet the day was bright,	Dispelling all its gloom,
Three women came to seek their Lord,	An angel fair in raiment white.
But what their joy to hear	To them the angel said:
The angel's message clear:	Mourn not your Lord as dead,
Fear not, for Christ the Lord is risen!	Fear not, for Christ the Lord is risen!

Shine forth, oh, glorious ray,
O'er all the world today!
The Lord is risen! He lives on high!
Joy bring to those that mourn,
Hope to the sorrow-worn,
Fear not, for Christ the Lord is risen!
